4. The base date for computing age is June 28, 2008.
5. Registration papers are required for all animals six (6) months or older A stamped duplicate application will be accepted for animals under six months of age.
6. Following South Carolina health rules, all goats must be listed on a Health Certificate issued within thirty (30) days of the show date by a licensed and accredited veterinarian, certifying the animals to be free of symptoms of contagious, infectious, or communicable disease. Unless the goats originate from a Certified-Accredited Herd, the Health Certificate must also indicate that all goats older than six (6) months on the show date have been tested and found to be free of Tuberculosis and Brucellosis within thirty (30) days. Goats which are native to herds in South Carolina need not be tested for Tuberculosis and Brucellosis. Testing is not required if herd is from TB free state or is certified TB free. Veterinarian issuing the Health Certificate must indicate on certificate that herd originates from a free state or is a certified herd.

7. There is a $20.00/day RV hook-up fee.
8. Animals will be allowed on the grounds beginning at 6:00 PM, Friday, June 27, 2008. Goats must be identified on health papers by their name and tattoo. All goats will have their health papers and tattoos examined by the Check-in Committee before they will be allowed to go to their pens. In cases of dispute, the decision of the Show Committee will be final.
9. All animals must be on the grounds Saturday, June 28, 2006, by 6:00 AM to have health and registration papers checked. First ring judging will begin with Alpine Senior Does at 8:00 AM; judging in the second ring will begin with Showmanship at 8:00 AM followed by Alpine Senior Does. Use the entry forms for showmanship classes Indicate showmanship in the breed column.
10. No Horned Animals may be shown. No Bicycles will be allowed in barn. All dogs must be on leash or in crate and listed on the health certificate.
11. Barn lights will be turned off at 10:00 PM Friday.
12. There is no mandatory pre-show milk-out.
13. Exhibitors are encouraged to wear white shirts without herd names or logos. Pants or skirts should be white or black.
14. All exhibitors are responsible for their property. Neither SCDGA, Inc. nor T. Ed Garrison Arena will accept responsibility for lost stolen or damaged property.
